

DIRECTORS REPLY TO CARRINGTON

Cohen and Stratton Positively Deny Statements of Prison Surgeon.

STRONG LANGUAGE IS USED

No Partiality, Says Cohen, Shown by Him in Favor of Shoe Company.

Denial of statements made by Dr. Charles V. Carrington in his recent address to the public in reference to the election of a surgeon at the State Penitentiary was given out last night by Samuel Cohen and F. Gerald Stratton, two of the members of the board of directors of the prison who voted for Dr. Herbert Mann and against Dr. Carrington. It is not believed that L. L. Scherer or W. B. Bradley will have statements, in fact, that Scherer indicated last night that he did not think anything had been said which was worth answering.

Mr. Cohen says that with the exception of the fact that he and Superintendent Hutcherson, of the Thacher Shoe Company, are friends, "there is not one word of truth in Dr. Carrington's charges," so far as he is concerned. He denies that he has ever shown any partiality to that company. He denies that Mr. Hutcherson ever spoke to him on the subject of the election of a surgeon or that he was in any way a supporter of Dr. Carrington that he would vote for the incumbent.

Mr. Stratton uses language even stronger than that employed by Mr. Cohen. He categorically denies every statement made by Dr. Carrington in reference to him, and asserts that every allegation made by Dr. Carrington in this respect "is a willful, malicious and false statement." He says that at no time did he tell the surgeon that he was "tied to the Manns," and asserts that Governor Mann has never spoken to him with reference to any appointment, and that no officer or employee of the bank in which Mr. Stratton is employed used influence with him to vote for Dr. Mann.

Mr. Cohen's Denial.

The statement of Mr. Cohen is as follows: I hardly think that Dr. Carrington's references to myself deserve answer. His statement bears so plainly the earmarks of envenomed bitterness and malicious injustice that his personal references are discounted in advance.

There are, however, in Dr. Carrington's statement a few paragraphs which may be misunderstood by those who are not familiar with the facts in the case. Justice to myself and to my colleagues demands that the truth be stated.

Dr. Carrington avers that I am the "unwavering friend and supporter of the Davis Boot and Shoe Company."

Particularly the Ladies.

Not only pleasant and refreshing to the taste, but gently cleansing and sweetening to the system, Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is particularly adapted to ladies and children, and beneficial in all cases in which a wholesome, strengthening and effective laxative should be used. It is perfectly safe at all times and dispels colds, headaches and the pains caused by indigestion and constipation so promptly and effectively that it is the one perfect family laxative which gives satisfaction to all and is recommended by millions of families who have used it and who have personal knowledge of its excellence.

Its wonderful popularity, however, has led unscrupulous dealers to offer imitations which act unsatisfactorily. Therefore, when buying, to get its beneficial effects, always note the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package of the genuine Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

Dyspepsia

Prominent merchant suffered for years—nothing did him any good—(1) he took this wonderful medicine, which cured him in short order.
"I am glad to tell what Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has done for me and others. I suffered from dyspepsia for many years, and tried doctors, mineral waters and many drugs to no avail. I read one of your pamphlets, which tell what this medicine has done and will do. So I ordered a case from my dealer and it did me so much good that I recommended it to all my friends who were feeling poorly, and it has been of such benefit to them that they would not be without it."—M. Villaseca, Opelousas, La.

It corrects the defective digestion of the food, increases the appetite, strengthens the heart, gives force to the circulation, cures throat and lung troubles, and insomnia, and brings restfulness to the brain and nervous forces. It is pleasant to the taste, and is obtained by the most delicate stomach. It has its credit fifty years of well doing. This is truly a recommendation in itself. Our files contain thousands of letters from men and women in all walks of life testifying to the wonderful cures this great medicinal whiskey has brought about. It will help you—will keep you strong and vigorous.

that I am "the closest personal friend of Mr. Hutcherson," the company's manager; that I was "generally believed to be their man" on the Penitentiary Board; that the Davis Company made no request that I "did not invariably spring to their aid," and he charges, by indirection, that I am the member of the board "controlled by the Davis Company."

Alleged Action by Attorney.
He also declares that counsel for the shoe company assured him, prior to the election of Dr. Mann, that he had called up Mr. Hutcherson and told him (Hutcherson) to call me up and have me vote for him (Dr. Carrington).

He charges finally that he was later assured by counsel for the company that I would support him, and he adds that I so promised one of his most "influential friends."

Obviously Dr. Carrington would pose as the champion of reform against the exaction of a merciless corporation, and would leave the impression that the company sought, through me, to remove him, in order that they might forward their own ends.

Reply to these far-fetched charges can be brief. I am the friend of Mr. Hutcherson, and was his friend long before I was placed on the Penitentiary Board. This very fact has always made me especially careful in all of my official dealings with the shoe company.

Denials.
With this exception—that Mr. Hutcherson and I are friends—there is, so far as I am concerned, not one word of truth in Dr. Carrington's charges. I have never felt or shown any partiality to the company, and could not have shown it. I have had no dealings of any sort with the company. So far as I recall, no representative of the shoe company has ever appeared before the board except on two occasions—once in regard to increased motive power and again to discuss the erection of a water tank. At no other time, so far as I know, did the shoe company or the shoe company ever come under discussion in the board. In the circumstances, a charge of partiality to the company is absurd, and doubly absurd as coming from Dr. Carrington, who never attended the board meetings unless sent for, and who, in consequence, could have had no opportunity of knowing what were my views regarding the company.

In this connection it may not be improper to state that I have always advocated the reference of the shoe contract to the Legislature, and have opposed any overtures on the part of the board looking to a renewal of the contract. Surely if Dr. Carrington's charge has any basis in fact, I as the "company's man," would have wished the matter decided where my vote might influence the final action.

No Promise of Support.
So far as any interference on the part of the shoe company in the election of surgeon is concerned, Mr. Hutcherson never telephoned me, saw me, or spoke to me on the subject at any time. I never tell counsel for the company, or any supporter of Dr. Carrington that I would vote for him. It seems to me that Dr. Carrington might first have called on Mr. Hutcherson for a statement of this part before he attempted to bring such a charge in a public print. I should also like for Dr. Carrington to produce his "influential supporter" or other person to whom I said I would vote for him as a result of the shoe company's influence.

Finally, Dr. Carrington wants to have an investigation of these "junket trips of the board to the World's Fair at Seattle and to Boston."

I went to Boston at the expense of the penitentiary to attend a meeting of the International Prison Association as a representative of that institution appointed by the Governor. My expenses were legitimate and were properly itemized. So far as the most expensive trip of all, that to Seattle, is concerned, my visit to that city cost the State or penitentiary not 1 cent. The records of the prison will show this.

(Signed) SAMUEL COHEN.

From Mr. Stratton.
F. Gerald Stratton, the Petersburg member of the board, replies as follows:
beg to refer to the issue of your paper of Tuesday, October 3, relative to the election of Dr. Carrington as surgeon for the penitentiary, and in which I am quoted over Dr. Carrington's signature as having had the following conversation with him:
"On Saturday afternoon, September 23, 1911, I had a talk with Mr. Stratton, in which I told him that I was not asking him for his vote, but that by reason of his obligations to me—obligations to which he has often referred—I had a right to ask him how he stood, and whether he was for young Mann or me. He squirmed and said: 'Doctor, I want all the light possible on this subject. I want to vote for the best man for the place, and for the best interest of the institution and of the State, but I am kind of tied to the Manns. I have discussed this matter with Governor Mann several months ago.'"

The following conversation is what actually took place between Dr. Carrington and myself. He first asked me if I was committed to Dr. Mann. I replied that I did not care to mislead Dr. Mann, who had asked me previously six months previously to vote for him. Dr. Carrington then stated he thought I would vote for Dr. Mann on personal grounds, as Dr. Mann was a Petersburg boy. I further told Dr. Carrington I would consider the whole subject with the board officially, and that I was going to vote as it appeared to me to be for the best interest of the institution and of the State. Dr. Carrington claims in his article that he was not asking me for my vote then, but he did say that he trusted when the time came for me to vote I might consider him favorably. I deny that I am under any obligations whatsoever to Dr. Carrington, and deny that I have ever "gratefully referred" to such a subject with him or any one else. About sixteen years ago I met him, and since then I never met him again until after I was appointed on the board in March, 1910, and again when the board sent for him to approve the correctness of a bill, and also during his recent visits to the penitentiary during the session of the board, when he came to solicit support for his re-election. Neither prior to my appointment on the board by Governor Mann nor since have I had any conversation with the Governor relative to any appointment, and do not believe Governor Mann even knew me by sight prior to my appointment. It was through the suggestion of some of my Petersburg friends that I was appointed on the board, and I accepted the appointment fully free to act upon my own judgment on any matters that might arise before it.

Positive Statement.
I wish to emphasize fully the fact that Dr. Carrington's charge regarding my talk with him, in which he alleges that I said I was tied to the Manns, that I had discussed the subject with the Governor and that I felt grateful to him (Dr. Carrington) for any obligations, is a willful, malicious and false statement on his part. I also denounce as false his statement that the Petersburg bank in which I am employed is dominated by any relative of Governor Mann, or that any of its officers or employees have ever used their influence with me to vote for Dr. Mann.

Judging from the past that Dr. Carrington has both the time and the liking for newspaper controversy, I wish to state that, as I neither care for such notoriety nor have I the time to devote to same, this is my final appearance in print on this subject so far as the charges refer to me personally.

I will thank you to give this statement the same publicity in your paper which you gave to Dr. Carrington's article. F. GERALD STRATTON, Petersburg, October 4.

GLASS PAID HIGH FOR PRIVILEGE

He and Senator Martin File Expense Accounts—Cost About $10,000 Each.

Couched in characteristic language, the expense account of Representative Carter Glass, who was a candidate for the United States Senate in the recent primary, was filed yesterday with the Governor and the Secretary of the Commonwealth. Mr. Glass says that he paid $3,000 "for the privilege of being a candidate."

The total expenses of the Lynchburg Congressman were $9,375. Out of the $3,000 primary fee he paid $1,137 for traveling expenses and hotel bills. The expenditures are not itemized, and the remainder of $5,237.58 is put down as a contribution to the Virginia Democratic League for printing and distributing literature, hire of halls and other incidental expenses of the campaign.

Senator Martin's Expenses.
The expense account of Senator Thomas S. Martin was also filed. He does not include the primary fee, saying in a separate note that he regards this as a contribution to the expenses of holding the election, and not as money expended for the purpose of furthering his candidacy. In his understanding of the law. Aside from the fee, Senator Martin spent $7,553.66, making his total about $9,000 larger than Mr. Glass's.

For postage the senior Senator spent $2,569.84. His clerical force cost him $10,118; printing, $1,055.33; typewriting, express charges and stationery, $358.59; newspaper advertising, $2,471.76; headquarters at Murphy's Hotel, $450; telegraph and telephone tolls, $1,456.

S. M. Page, for the House from Albemarle and Charlottesville, nominated, spent $45.35; A. M. Bowman, for the House from Roanoke county, nominated without opposition, $27; George T. Rison, for the Senate from the Pittsylvania-Henry district, nominated, $25.15; S. H. Evans, for the House from Caroline, nominated, $67.45; Blaine Massey, for the Senate from the Amherst-Nelson district, nominated, $75.23.

Operate on Woman Doctor.
Dr. May E. Jones, of West Point, was operated on yesterday at the Memorial Hospital. Dr. Jones, who is one of the few women physicians in Virginia, is coming to Richmond to be with her sister, Mrs. S. T. Blair, of West Point, who was also ill at the Memorial. While here she became ill. Her condition last night was said to be satisfactory.

Dr. H. G. Tarter, of Wytheville, who was operated on several days ago, was pronounced better.

NO QUORUM PRESENT, AND MEETING IS POSTPONED.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Norfolk, Va., October 4.—The Straightouts' contest of the recent primary nomination of Fusion candidates was to have been taken up at a meeting of the Norfolk county Democratic committee to-day, but a quorum was not present, and the matter was deferred until next Tuesday. J. Lindsay Heard, attorney for the contestants, stated that Colonel C. Fenton Day, chairman of the Second District Congressional Committee, had been asked to call the contest together to consider the contest. Mr. Heard said there was not certain the Straightouts would be present at the next meeting.

IS COTTON CORNER LAW VIOLATION?

Solicitor-General Lehmann Says It Is, and Quotes Pope to Prove It.

Washington, D. C., October 4.—The legal contest before the Supreme Court of the United States over the question whether a corner of the cotton market is a violation of the Sherman antitrust law began to-day when Solicitor-General Lehmann filed a brief contending that the law so applies. The point arose from the appeal of the government from the action of the New York Federal Court in quashing certain counts of an indictment against James A. Patten, Eugene G. Scales, Frank B. Haynes and William P. Brown.

The solicitor-general quoted the poet Pope in support of his contention that a corner was more than a gambling transaction, and likewise turned literature in argument that such a corner as alleged not only resulted in "queuing the shorts," but in a restraint of trade in violation of the Sherman law.

"A general corner can no more be accomplished in a commodity like cotton without affecting the entire commerce in that staple," said the solicitor-general, "than Shylock's bond could be enforced without shedding a drop of blood. As well say that Shylock's purpose was simply the pound of flesh. He was ravenous for the blood that would follow his knife. And these defendants sought in the trade in cotton, the last penny of price they could draw from either shorts or spinners."

LYNCHBURG GETS NEXT MEETING

Officers Elected by Christian Churches in Session at Newport News.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Newport News, Va., October 4.—With the election of officers for the ensuing year and the selection of Lynchburg as the place for the next convention, the Christian Churches of Virginia practically closed their annual session in this city to-day. Officers were elected, as follows: President, H. P. Atkins; Vice-president, H. D. Macchian; Secretary, H. E. McWaters; Treasurer, R. M. Kent; Auditor, G. S. Gresham; Secretary, H. C. Combs, and Assistants, A. B. Chandler, O. A. Hawkins and George White; Superintendent of C. E. Work, W. W. Ford; Secretary, Miss Elizabeth Forley.

The closing sessions of the convention will be held to-morrow. Various reports were received to-day, and other business was transacted. The committee on ways and means recommended that $10,000 be raised this year, to be apportioned among the various churches by the field secretary.

There was an acrimonious discussion as to what constitutes a delegate to the convention, but it finally was decided to send all representatives from the churches. Some were without credentials.

AMUSEMENTS

Academy—"Rip Van Winkle." Bijou—"The Winning Widow."

Fredrik Is Great.
Not since the days of the elder Herman has Richmond witnessed so good a magic performance as that given at the Academy of Music last night by Fredrik the Great. Indeed, with the lapse of more than fifteen years since Herman has been in the limelight, one fresh from the performance last night would be inclined to give Fredrik the first place. And this could be done without doing injustice to the memory of the dead man.

Fredrik's tricks are new. They mystify, yet are just obvious enough to be entertaining. There are no stock tricks which magicians have shown time out of mind. From where he got his ideas no one knows, nor is there any way to ascertain how he deceives. In fact, not even the regular stage hands are allowed on the stage during the performance. So many contrivances and so many different varieties of tricks are shown that to mention them all one's memory is taxed.

But by far the best trick shown was that in levitation, when apparently the woman in the case is lifted into the air by some unseen force. As a matter of fact, there is no woman. Just a sheet with which she had been covered is found suspended in the air when the denouement comes, and the woman rushes from the rear of the house to the stage.

Probably the best tribute to Fredrik's ability as an entertainer is the fact that he held his audience for two solid hours and not a single member of that audience but went away pleased. We would like to see Fredrik often.

"Rip Van Winkle."

Thomas Jefferson will bring "Rip Van Winkle" back to the Academy to-night, to-morrow matinee and night. Of his performance in Norfolk the Virginian Pilot yesterday said:
"Rip Van Winkle has been seen in Norfolk many times, but it is doubtful if a more artistic or thoroughly enjoyable presentation of this classic of the American stage was ever witnessed in this city than that which was given last night at the Academy of Music by Thomas Jefferson."

Van Winkle is as thoroughly Jeffersonian and as complete a masterpiece as paintings of Van Dyke and Velasquez are representatives of the artists themselves. Thomas Jefferson's every movement is given to artistic thought and artistic achievement. He will be seen in "Rip Van Winkle" at the Academy to-night and to-morrow matinee and night.

Thomas Jefferson is a very abstemious man in eating as in other things—except occupation in the open air—he evidently believes in moderation as a means to well living and long living. When he is not acting he spends his summers at his beautiful home in Bazar Bay, Mass. He is as ready with his pen as with his fishing rod, and is witty and fun-compelling in company as he is delightful before the footlights.
